Foreword

In this, the 1924 Ranger, the Tuff Kuttis present for your pleasure, the summary of a year of work and play at Northwestern.

To those who have gone before, may it be a reminder of their own happy days spent within the college. To those who are here, may it prove an inspiration to make the next year the greatest in the history of the college. To those who have not as yet resided within the gates as students, may it give you a correct impression of Northwestern, her work and ideals.

And to you who have helped to make this publication possible, may your pleasure in the success of the book be your reward.

Dedication

To us he is "Percy." And tho he is listed in the catalogue as Professor S. C. Perceful, A. B., A. M., Dean of the College, what means infinitely more to us is that he is also "Dean" of the Tuff Knuts. A wise counsellor indeed; a friend to every student; a real booster for the school—the most that we can say for him is that he is a true Ranger. And the Tuff Knuts take great pleasure in dedicating the 1924 Ranger to our friend and sponsor, Dean Perceful.

DEAN SABIN C. PERCIFUL

OUR PRESIDENT

With the close of the school year 1923-24, Northwestern will have finished her fifteenth year under the administration of J. P. Battenberg. Five full years, years filled with achievement, and years which comprise the most prosperous period in the history of the college. A brief period, as time is reckoned, but a long period when the years in question form the best part of a man's life. But if they have been prosperous years for Northwestern, surely they have been no less satisfactory to the giver. Deeply engraved on the heart of every student who has entered the doors of Northwestern during his administration, is a love for the man who has been the chief factor in the remarkable growth and development of the college. A leader, a booster, and a true gentleman, he has made his mark in the school. May the succeeding years with Mr. Battenberg at the helm of Northwestern be even more successful than those which already stand to his credit in the ledger of life.

HEROD HALL

Where for a decade a statue of Abraham Lincoln has stood, an inspiration to the seeker of knowledge, soon a beautiful new building will rear its tall spires and proud towers far up above the majestic elm trees into the blue Ozarkian sky. Another great step in the steady, ~~uninterrupted~~ progress of Northwestern. And it is fitting indeed that such a step should be symbolized by erecting a future and enduring service of the institution. A servant who has given the best years of a busy life toward promoting the interests of the college. A life which has been an inspiration to every student who has entered Northwestern's doors. Although his name will live in the hearts of those who have been so fortunate to have been enrolled in his classes, it is now to be immortalized in the name of Northwestern's splendid new dormitory. Fitting indeed that the new society hall and residence of this new body, be named HEROD HALL. A new Herod Hall prove an great an inspiration to the future generations of students at Northwestern as has the life and work of Professor . . . A Herod to the generations of students in the past.

FOOTBALL

WYATT

To those who have "played the game" in any of the many branches of athletics during their career at Northwestern, the name "Ranger" would mean no thing, did they not know that F. S. Wyatt were still putting the same old love of the game and of good sportsmanship into the teams that he has instilled into athletic teams of Northwestern for eighteen years.

Eighteen years the athletic mentor of Northwestern! Eighteen years one of the foremost figures in Oklahoma athletics! Eighteen full years! Years in which he has produced many winning teams in the various branches of athletics. He is a widely known athletic director.

He might well be called "the father of athletics in Northwestern Oklahoma." For not only has he assisted in developing athletics in the high schools of the section through their personal contact, but members of Ranger teams have been coaching these same teams for over a generation, carrying the knowledge that they received here to those who may eventually come here in later years.

Years of active coaching have kept him in perfect health. His strength is a marvel to young men who go out for the teams, when he shows them just how a certain play is made, illustrating it himself.

His name is synonymous with Northwestern athletics. He is indeed the "grand old man of Ranger athletics." May his work go on.

CAPTAIN BENNETT finished his fourth year of football with Northwestern this season. He was a great runner and a great passer. I knew he gave as good as he got. He was the best man on the team in point of experience and of good work done. He lives at Alva. Height 5 ft. 8 in. Weight 140 lbs.

PAYNE KORFF'S pass snatching ability and stubborn defensive play won him an end position before last season. He is a great kind of a pass catcher and a good runner. His tackling was hard and true. He lives at Capron and is a first year man. Height 5 ft. 9 in. Weight 170 lbs.

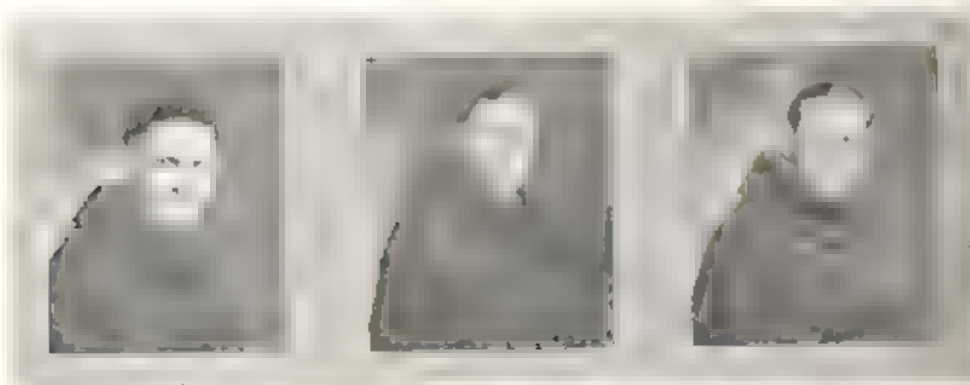

JOHN BUCKLES of the line fought so hard at the line that he was given a place in the back. He is a great runner and did splendid work against Illinois. He uses a great pass that works well against the wind. Height 5 ft. 10 in. Weight 170 lbs.

MIDDLETON, Captain-elect and Northwestern's mighty linesman was chosen as All-state guard and starred in every game he played. "Mickey" never quit fighting and spurred the team on both by action and word. He is playing his first year of college football and lives at Carmen. Height 6 ft. Weight 190 lbs.

MARK ALDEN, the halfback of the team, played his back and played it well. Mark could throw a ball like a bullet, was a fierce tackler and always gave his best in a game. He lives at Alva and has five more years to smash lines. Height 5 ft. 10 in. Weight 160 lbs.

DEWEY RANCK, of Gage, a first year guard, was a bulwark on defense and generally held his own with his opponent. Ranck always kept a mental jump ahead of the other man and was a good blocker and hole opener. He never worried about anything. Height 5 ft. 10 in. Weight 185 lbs.

LANCE E. HANK was a center at both tackle or end, showed that he will be good on either side. Hank was a sure, sure tackler and was good at punishing the passer's play. He is a first year man who has played in the line. Weight 200 lbs.

CHARLES BAKER, of Lancaster, bumped 'em off at tackle. He was good on spotting sides and was an adept at blocking. Baker was the soul, natured man on the squad and was never happy unless he could do all the talking. He was a college caliber and was one more year to play. Height 6 ft. 2 in. Weight 180 lbs.

"PAT" BALLARD 235 lb. guard, never saw a forward until he came to New Western. He soon learned to use his weight to good advantage and after a game or two said he had won the last of them. Opposing linemen sometimes went over him or around him but never through him. He backs away from a first year man and is a good player.

SEYMOUR ALBERT A. N. Jones, 1921 alternated for the Rangers at center and tackle. Once he got his legs around an opponent that opponent stopped. Hard to take off. Height 6 ft. 1 in. Weight 200 lbs. He is a first year man and he has more than 1000 yards.

ALBERT A. N. Jones, 1921 alternated for the Rangers at center and tackle. Once he got his legs around an opponent that opponent stopped. Hard to take off. Height 6 ft. 1 in. Weight 200 lbs. He is a first year man and he has more than 1000 yards.

EDWARD OAKLEY a guard, never saw a forward until he came to New Western. He soon learned to use his weight to good advantage and after a game or two said he had won the last of them. Opposing linemen sometimes went over him or around him but never through him. He backs away from a first year man and is a good player. Height 5 ft. 7 in. tall.

TRACK AND FIELD

Track athletics have since this year at Northwestern for the first time in many seasons. Some of the men started work as early as Christmas and worked faithfully until May. Others didn't turn out until the spring term but made excellent progress from then on.

The first meet was a long one with Phillips' and Central at the end in April. Although the Rangers placed last they managed to take four first places and we think Captain Harrod kept easily took first in mile and two mile, Ray Root secured victory in the hundred yard dash, while McLean La Grone took the road race with a mark of 21 fast 7 1/2 miles. McLean was also in the hurdles and Gindlesburger third in the pole vault.

A dual meet was held at Northwestern in early May, Northwestern taking advantage of the fact that the Rangers placed last. Despite the fact that La Grone and Elmore did not go to school well. Keith again took the mile and two mile while McLean was high point man for the Rangers with eleven points, winning first in the low hurdles and getting second in the high hurdles and gave the Hill men second in the last, Gindlesburger second in the pole vault and Cummings won the discus throw.

At the time this goes to press the team is hard at work preparing for the season at Normal May 10th. Coach Wyatt is going to take six men to this meet in an effort to bring the season to recognize championship to Northwestern. The men who make up the team will be chosen from the following:

Keith, Ray, La Grone, McLean, Gindlesburger, Hill, Elmore, Kratoch, Davis, Pennington, Eybark, Bickles, Jacobs, Stoner and McGlasson.

DEBATE

Northwestern's Debating Honor was successfully upheld this year by Derrel Smith, Captain, and Marcus Webster, affirmative, and Glenn Sherman, Captain, and Orville Casseron, negative on the following question: "Resolved, that the United States should use its best efforts to promote the establishment of a World Court as suggested by the late President Harding."

Smith and Webster defended the question on Northwestern's floor, while Sherman and Casseron argued on the home floor. Both presented strong argument contained in well prepared speeches. Much of their success, in as much as this was the first debate for three of the men or the team, is due to the able coaching of Professor Reynolds, for the affirmative and Professor Wood, for the negative.

The staff of the 1924 Ranger has now finished its work and work is being set in without any pleasure and satisfaction. We realize that the faculty and students may want an annual that will be a credit to the institution. We have endeavored to fulfill their desires and hope we have not failed.

It would have been impossible, however, to have published an annual and it not been for those who have worked without honor. By this means we wish to express our appreciation to all who have assisted in compiling this book.

To Miss Butler and the Art Department we wish to express our appreciation for the attractive art work and helpful suggestions.

To the students and people of Alva who have shared a part of the fun of this book we wish to express our gratitude and appreciation.

To the entire staff we wish to express our thanks for their faithful and untiring work.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF '24

P. D. C.

ORGANIZED 1900--NORTHWESTERN

Reunited graduates will find their old spirit, the old Debating Club, next year, will celebrate its quarter century anniversary. The P. D. C. has since organization in college, was formed in the fall of 1900, as a group of graduates looking to further promote the welfare and popularity of these men in the college, and to create a fraternal spirit among men of the school who were interested in studying the art of speech. To that end, the club has now set forth for graduates a series of debates and speeches the club has set forth for the club, the organization has attained a high position in its training school for debaters and speakers.

Although losing a large number of men this year, through graduation, the club will begin work promptly next year, with the opening of college. The twenty-fifth year should mark a golden era of progress for P. D. C.

N S N DEBATE CLUB

The N. S. N. Debate Club was organized in 1904, for the purpose of developing the ability of the class members in the art of debating and furnishing them with an opportunity for training in debate. The second part of this aim is to give the members a chance to develop their debating abilities in a school setting.

The officers for the year are as follows:

In 1922 a group of Northwestern girls perfected an organization, the object of which was to encourage interest in debate, and The Philonian Girls Club soon proved its right to exist.

The Club has been successfully represented on the Triangular Debate Teams as well as in other intercollegiate debates. Five of our girls are members of the Honorary Forensic Fraternity Phi Kappa Delta—the only girls in the local Chapter.

The girls of Northwestern are taking their places beside their brothers in this work of service.

Colors: Black and Blue

Motto: Use Beech Knutt and Bull Durham

Purpose: To promote the welfare of students and to assist in upholding the traditions of old Northwestern.

The Order was organized in the fall of 1924 and is composed of Senior, Junior, and Sophomore men of the College.

RADIO CLUB

The North Star Club was organized on November 28, 1923 for the purpose of furthering in every way the education and research among students of the college.

The club organized with ten members, and since that time the enrollment has grown to sixteen. That much interest has been taken in the work by the members of the club is shown by the fact that the club has covered the basic needs of the city. Many problems of the poor have been worked out during the club sessions, and this information has been of valuable service to middle "fans" in Ayia.

Although one of the youngest clubs in the college, it is looking forward to big things next year.

The organization of the Philomathean Club in Northwestern was a valuable asset to her already excellent group of societies. The purpose of the club is implied in the name Philomathean, which means "Seeker of Wisdom". The club was organized on December 2, 1914, with thirteen members. It has increased in efficiency in every way, and fulfills its duty to live in most by developing the mental and social sides of life, for its members.

We boast of having one of the most enthusiastic, "up and going" clubs found in any college. Also we boast of our scholars, musicians, athletes, and many very well talented members.

In July 1921, thirteen students with two faculty members, organized themselves for the purpose of promoting scholarship and student activities at Northwestern. This organization is "The Scroll." Its membership now numbering twenty-eight, includes only Juniors of the College who have reached and maintained certain standards.

It is the policy of "The Scroll" to offer each year a scholarship at Northwestern for the member to the Freshman College Class who has, at the close of the year, made the highest ranking in scholarship and student activities.

Efforts are being made to become affiliated with the National Educational Fraternity, Kappa Delta Phi.

"SERVE"

"SERVE" was the keynote of the evolution of this business back in 1902.

"SERVE" has been and is today the rock upon which this business has grown.

"SERVE" is the word which is deeply imprinted in the minds of our entire people. They must serve with efficiency.

"Serve" has a deep meaning to every associate of this Nation-Wide Institution. Those connected with the buying of our goods serve cheerfully.

"SERVE" is proclaimed automatically by the hundreds of thousands who buy from or serve hundreds of different stores and it is a constant word which always is heard. The customer comes first. He must be served with satisfaction at any cost.

"SERVE" has been the creative force which has made this the World's greatest institution of department stores.

"SERVE" is that which makes your buying from us a pleasure and a profit to you.

Farmer—"Be ye the woman?"

Woman—"Yes sir."

Farmer—"Then I think I'll keep Maggie."

Prof. Carter—"In your story you make your owl hoot 'To whom' instead of 'To whom'."

Dr. Martin—"Yes, this was a Boston owl."

Steamboat Captain, who had just fallen overboard—"Don't stand there like a dum-bell, give a yell can't you?"

Seafarer (new deckhand)—"Certainly, sir. Rah Rah Rah, Rah Rah Rah, Rah, Rah, Captain, Captain."

Prof. Carter—"What are you doing, John, learning anything?"

John J.—"Nape, just listening to you."

Bridge is one of the most engrossing games ever devised, stimulating both mind and body. It inspires at twenty, thrills at forty and cheers at sixty. It calls into play every faculty and every muscle and is, what, a test of a man's judgment, self-control and perseverance.

Stude—"Wonderful, how do you guess it?"

She—"Tell me, have you ever loved another?"

He—"Why, of course. You don't suppose I would practice on a nice girl like you, do you?"

She—"I'm glad you came over. I'm just dying to dance the worst way."

He—"Too bad Grace, the chaperone's awfully strict."

Prof. Carter (In Eugenie's Class)—"Science says that 80 per cent of the girls who marry, are working girls, but it neglects to say that 100 per cent of the girls who marry are working men."

McDermott, at Weinler's—"I'd like to see son of a cheap in a straw hat."

Stude—"I'll try this or and step over to the interior and look at a pencil."

Morgan—"So you flunked in French. I can't understand it."

Rosemary Lacroix—"I can't enter, that's why I flunked."

Miss Muller (to tardy student)—"What are you late for?"
Oscar Hill (sleepily)—"Why, er, to class, I suppose."

Ruth O.—"How did Deere feel, last night?"

Charles R.—"Just like a blind man."

Ruth—"How's that?"

Charles—"He needed someone to lead him on."

A young lady, collecting jokes, asked Orville Cameron for one and he pointed to Oscar Hill.

What would happen to Lloyd Bixler if he didn't get to call a Senior High Class Meeting after each chapel?

Edwin S.—"Do you play 'Mah Jongg'?"

Edwin L.—"What's a 'Mah Jongg'?"

Edwin—"Oh, that's a game you play with little ivory blocks."

Edwin—"Of course I do. Why don't you say what you mean?"

Bernell Reed—"I wish to ask you a question concerning a tragedy."

Miss Smockley—"Well, "

Bernell—"What is my grade?"

THE 1924 RANGER

The production of this Annual represents a volume of work which can only be appreciated by those who have an intimate relationship with it.

The Staff is to be commended for their faithful effort to present to the student a year's book embracing the real life and spirit of the school. Our relations with the University, our social life, our pleasure and our sorrows will be described by your possession of this "The 1924 Ranger."
